This is a new approach for us to publish the genealogical history of a particular family in that, we opted to include key Allied and Collateral families along with the primary family immigrants. We define Allied families as being of a different surname that directly married a member of the primary family. We define Collateral families as being of a surname of persons that directly married into an Allied family. Immigrant surnames included in this book: Cathey, Buckner, Tidwell, Villard (Willard), Kimball (Kimbell), Simms, Stubbs, Lynch (Linch), Stanley, Lumkin, Mercer, Harvey #1, Davis, Hawkins, Rentz, Harvey #2, Holloway, Bullock & Henley, Griffin, Webb, Sterling, Clements, Dalby, Avery, Tillman, Barradall, Carpenter, Williams, Darnall, Jordan, Degraffenried, Smith Thomas Millsaps (d. 1760) appears to have emigrated from Ireland and settled in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania around 1735. He and his wife Mary had eight children. Some of the children later settled in North Carolina. Descendants live throughout the United States. Enos Jones of Augusta County, Virginia, was the son of Robert Jones & Anne Coulston of the Welsh settlement of Gwyndd in what is today Montgomery County, Pennsylvania. They were Friends or Quakers if you prefer, as were the majority of the first settlers of Gwyndd, fleeing from the religious intolerance of 17th Century England. These early Quakers were soon joined by a host of 18th Century settlers from Germany, France, Ireland, Scotland, Wales and England who also contributed their unique heritage to the growth of our country's culture. They were quickly followed by others from almost every corner of the world. Around the time of the American Revolution, Enos Jones and his wife Lydia, daughter of Palatine Germans, packed up their family and, along with Lydia's brothers, made their way west into the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia. The following generations moved on west in search of new lands to farm stopping in Ross County, Ohio, then Linn County, Iowa, and finally in Page County, Iowa where the tale ends. This is the standard history of Augusta County, Virginia, with chapters on the county's first settlement, first courts, Indian wars, and Augusta County in the Revolution and the Civil War. Genealogists will most appreciate the discussion of the migration trail out of Augusta County and the numerous genealogical and biographical sketches of Augusta County families. This book corrects many previous errors pertaining to the Virginia Immigrant Ball Family in 1650. Most previous records we have attempted to validate show the Virginia immigrants as originating in Berkshire; however, there is no evidence whatsoever to prove Berkshire as the place of origin for the Virginia immigrants. The information presented in this book is compiled from fresh research, onsite if or whenever necessary, and it is independent of all prior works that purportedly document the Virginia immigrants. To validate this research effort, we included a separate historical record compiled using evidence that pertains only to the Ball family of Berkshire, specific to the manors of Barkham and Wokingham. It can be found as an Appendix in order to prove no member of that family ever immigrated to Virginia - That record is validated to later than 1701. This book also denies the credibility of the long touted Ball Family Committee Report as submitted to the Library of Congress.
